

April 21, 2008

Snapshots: Festivities mark completion of two new centers in The Arbor

Festivities mark completion of two new centers in The Arbor.

SADDLEBACK VALLEY NEWS

LAKE FOREST— Scavenger hunts. Prizes. Discounts. Entertainment.

That's what residents encountered Saturday during a celebration marking the completion of The Orchard and Home Depot Office/Retail Center – two new centers in The Arbor, a shopping hub along El Toro Road.

Kids also took part in "The Arbor Amazing Race," an adventure that led them through The Orchard and the Home Depot Office/Retail Center. Participants were given a map and collected clues at various destinations.

The Arbor is on El Toro Road near the intersection of Rockfield Boulevard.

RIBBON: Charlie Smith (left), co-managing partner of Westrust Financial Company, and Lake Forest Mayor Mark Tetteimer, standing with city council members and other dignitaries, hold scissors together as they cut the red ribbon Saturday for the celebration of the completion of the two newest centers in The Orchard.

JEFFREY ANTENORE, CONTRIBUTOR