A 138,000-square-foot Target is under construction in The Plant retail center in San Jose, Calif.

WESTRUST SELLS 10 ACRES TO TARGET FOR NEW STORE DEVELOPMENT

San Jose, Calif. — Westrust has sold 10 acres in The Plant retail center in San Jose to Target for a new store development. Construction has begun on the 138,000-square-foot store, which will join The Home Depot, Best Buy and PetsMart as well as additional tenants in the 646,000-square-foot retail center, located on the corner of Curtner Avenue and Monterey Road off Highway 87. San Francisco-based Westrust is developing The Plant in a joint venture with Pacific Coast Capital Partners and Vornado Realty Trust. Kenneth Rodrigues Partners designed the $142 million center, which is scheduled to be completed this summer.
